

PRESS RELEASE
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

VirtualCDO Expanding Finance Business Development Services;
Adds talent to team.

Great River, N.Y., April 7, 2008 - VirtualCDO, an M&A and corporate growth advisory firm, has named Renee Curreri as finance coach.

Renee is an experienced CFO, corporate executive and leader who understands the challenges facing many companies today. As an Ernst and Young alumni, her financial leadership has resulted in significant improvements in bottom line performance for her clients. While experienced with organizations of varying size and complexity, Renee focuses on providing emerging and rapid-growth companies strong financial and operational foundations to enable growth and effective utilization of resources, as well as successful execution of an exit strategy.

In her new role at VirtualCDO, Curreri will provide financial consulting for client companies. James R. Brennan, Principal of VirtualCDO commented that, "I am extremely pleased to welcome Renee to our team. With her extensive experience in the financial field combined with her ability to provide financial direction, operational excellence and systems leadership targeted towards a client's strategic goals, the VirtualCDO team is now positioned to rapidly deploy these services."

About VirtualCDO

VirtualCDO is a Corporate Development Officer resource for small-medium sized businesses. Working closely with Client executives, we drive the M&A process in a focused, effective and affordable manner. In support of the M&A process, we provide a range of valuation-boosting services in the areas of strategic planning, sales, marketing, financial, and CRM leadership. Using our unique process of leveraging a network of experienced M&A professionals, we help maintain a low overhead while maximizing the transaction value of your company. Additional information about VirtualCDO is available at www.VirtualCDO.com.

Contact:
James R. Brennan, FACHE
VirtualCDO
Brennan@VirtualCDO.com
P: (631)446-4400 ext.501